(3) Items exempt under this section include, but are not limited to, garden hoes, rakes, sickles, baggies, tobacco pipes and cigarette-rolling papers.

(4) Items that are marketed for decorative purposes, when such items have been rendered completely inoperable or incapable of being used for any illicit purpose prohibited by this Section.

i. Considerations: In determining whether or not a particular item is exempt under this Section, all other logically relevant factors should be considered, including the following:

a. The general, usual, customary, and historical use to which the item involved has been put;

b. Expert evidence concerning the ordinary or customary use of the item and the effect of any peculiarity in the design or engineering of the item upon its functioning;

c. Any written instructions accompanying the delivery of the item concerning the purposes or uses to which the item can or may be put;

d. Any oral instructions provided by the seller of the item at the time and place of sale or commercial delivery;

e. Any national or local advertising, concerning the design, purpose or use of the item involved, and the entire context in which such advertising occurs;

f. The manner, place and circumstances in which the item was displayed for sale, as well as any item or items displayed for sale or otherwise exhibited upon the premises where the sale was made;

g. Whether the owner or anyone in control of the object is a legitimate supplier of like or related items to the community, such as a licensed distributor or dealer of tobacco products;

h. The existence and scope of legitimate uses for the object in the community.

(d) A person who possesses drug paraphernalia shall be fined not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) nor more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00).

(e) A person who possesses less than thirty (30) grams of cannabis shall be fined not less than seventy five dollars ($75.00) nor more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00)

(f) The provisions of this Section relating to the possession of cannabis shall be applicable to the possession of any quantity of cannabis less than thirty (30) grams. (Ord. No. 2389, § 1; Ord. No. 2877, § 1.)

SECTION 2. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication in the manner provided by law.
